Cinema

Hi George,

I'm writing about Friday. You wanted to go to the cinema together, remember? I'm sorry, but I can't come because my uncle is coming to visit. You could come to my house on Sunday instead? We could watch the new Bond movie

Café

Hi Jenna,

I went to an amazing new café in town last weekend. They serve delicious pizzas and pasta. The best thing is the desserts – the chocolate cake is delicious! Are you free on Friday? We could go there together if you like.

Holiday

Hi Tom,

I've just got back from my holiday in Spain. It was amazing! The beaches were fantastic, and I loved the food. The people were friendly, too. Would you like to see my photos? I can email them to you if you want.

Bought sth new

Dear Teresa,

I bought a new library for my room. I have need to buy it because this year I have a lot of school's books. I think I put it near my bed. Do you think is a good idea?

Football tickets

Hello Jerry,

I know that we have to go the football match at the weekend. I really wanted to go with you but i cannot this time. I have got a very essential and additional math exam this weekend. Hope you will not be disappointed too. I advise you to invite your other friends to go the match together. Best wishes!

English class

Dear, Mrs David,

I think I will be absent from English class next week because next week is my best friend's birthday so I have to go his party. I'm really sorry it won't happen again. Can you tell me about next week's work?

I have to be ready.

Life in Britain

Hi Judy

Thank you for your information about Britain, you know Britain very well, i think. My teacher was so surprised, because it as such a fantastic homework project. The information about the Queen was the most useful. I hope you write back later

Bought clothes

Hi Alex!

I've just bought a new coat, it's very beautiful, it's has pink and brown, it's wonderful. I bought this beautiful in the Sunshine's shop. I really need to buy this coat because I am going to Sa Pa tomorrow.

Family problem

Hi George,

I'm sorry to hear about your problems with your family. I usually get on really well with my parents, although we don't agree about everything and we sometimes have arguments. I've only got one sister, and we are very different. We don't have much in common, but I'm fond of my sister and we don't. Little sisters can be difficult, but just be patient. I'm sure you'll get on better when she grows up.

Take care and write soon

Talent show

I saw the advert for a talent show and decided to apply. Two weeks later I received a reply saying my application had been successful! I was going to sing on a real talent show! I was really excited and at the same time really frightened. I practised every day to get ready for the show. As I walked on stage, I was so nervous I thought I was going to die! But once I started singing, I started to relax Afterwards, I had to wait for the judges to decide. "And the winner is...". I closed my eyes for what seemed like days! Me! It was me! I had won! It was the happiest day of my life!

A new home

Last month, I went to visit my brother in his new flat. He had moved in a week before and had invited me for dinner.

When I arrived at the large apartment building, I rang the bell of the flat on the third floor, but no one answered. First, I thought he was out, so I decided to wait. Then, after an hour, I began to get worried. What had happened to him? Finally, I decided to check his address. I couldn't believe it – he lived on the fourth floor!

I went upstairs immediately. Luckily, my brother and his flatmates found it funny, and we enjoyed a lovely dinner together

Keep fit

Dear Alison,

I understand your situation and I have thought of some solutions to help you. Your problem is quite common and I believe every person working in the world has this problem as well. I suggest you do some simple exercise while you are working. You can stretch your arms and legs in order to relax your muscles. You can also control your diets. Try to eat more healthy food for lunch and dinner. Avoid those food that are rich in fats and oils because you are not doing much exercise. I know you may feel tired after work and you may just want to go home and sleep, but I suggest you join a yoga class at least three times a week. Doing yoga can help to relax every parts of your body, including your mind. You can also lose weight because yoga takes up a lot of energy from you. Your feelings can also be expressed under this comfortable condition. Doing yoga really benefits you.

I hope you can find these suggestions usefal. Think positive, don't give too much pressure to yourself!

New friend

Dear Jenna,

Thanks for your letter, that made me really happy! At first, I want to know more about your friend, tell me more in your next letter! I've got a lot of friends. But I've got (maybe) 10 close friends who I spend a lot of time with. Most weekends we all together and spend our time with watching TV, talking, going in pubs or clubs and so on. I am really happy to have them. They are all the most important for me (after my family). But at the moment I'm in Vietnam (you know) so I can't see them. But I fligh London in 12 day and then I see them 2 weeks. You don't believe how happy I am about this! Ok Jenna, I need to go back to work.

I hope I hear you soon.
